

ANNOUNCING CONTRACTOR TRAINING CLASSES!

GeoShack University has scheduled a two-day, instructor led Total Station for Construction Layout with TopSurv training class for October, 2009. This program will be held at the AGC headquarters in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Program GSU-4: Construction Layout—Total Station and TopSurv
The target audience for this class is a person currently laying out jobs with tapes and a theodolite or transit. It will provide students with a working knowledge of total stations (robotic and manual) and use and function of Topcon's TopSurv 7 Layout software. We will cover an overview of plans and survey terms, hands on practice with data collectors and total stations in the classroom and field. We will practice set up and backsight, perform stakeout and as-built topo routines, and learn to key plan data into the data collector.
